[from a somewhat smudged Summer 1901 Ohio newspaper article sent by Mrs. Clarence Fouts, Troy, OH]
Family Reunion

Editors Bulletin: The home of Brother Daniel Hoops, on the banks of Tom's Run, near the Farmersville and West Alexandria pike was the scene of a joyous gathering on Saturday, August the 24, the occasion being the 84th birth day of Bro. Hoops, and also the 25th anniversary of his grandson, Mr. Orlon [?] Cook.

Brother Hoops was born near what is known as the Five Points, near the Montgomery and Preble county line, in 1817, and has always lived within two miles of the place where he first saw the light of day. He is a man who has seen hard work in life, but so rugged has been his make-up that he still enjoys health, rather feeble, yet eating and sleeping well. He enjoys giving a history of his early days. He says he has voted for every Democratic President from Jackson down, and is still strong in the faith.

Brother Hoops was a shoemaker in his earlier days, working for 57 years, and delights in telling how he earned his first home driving pegs[?]. He has been a member of Jackson Grange, No. 403 ever since its organization, it being organized on the 19th day of January 1874. He was one of the charter members, and there are but three of the charter members' names yet on the roll...

The day mentioned for the re-union was all that could be looked for, and a nicely prepared dinner was spread in the tobacco shed, where willing hands and hearts enjoyed themselves both by eating and talking or in preparing the good things; for the baskets were not forgotten, and they came so heavily laden that the handles came off. Twenty-five kinds of cake were reported and chicken enough to start a first class boarding house. Mr. Charles Hoops, a grandson, came prepared with his camera, and photographed the crowd. [Does anyone have a photo?]

As the guests were about to depart they were each presented by Brother Hoops with a nice mush paddle finished with his own hands, of the native sugar wood which he keeps on hand.

Those present were: ... numbering in all 58 people, there being but two of Brother Hoop's children there, J. D. Hoops and Mrs. Jennie Barker. His daughter living in the West could not attend. While the day was very pleasantly spent, there were vacant chairs at the family board. So we are called to look around us and see some one absent. It will be but a few years more when we, too, will be absent. Let us be ready when the Great Master calls us to answer to our names... --Cor. Sec'y., Formersville, Ohio.
